Dear Special Trades Trust Member:

New York Compensation Managers, Inc. and The Special Trades Contracting and Construction Trust would like to congratulate Casino Development Group, Inc. for completing calendar year 2009 without any losses in the workplace. This level of safety performance is duly noted and greatly appreciated because it directly enhances the overall financial integrity of the Trust.

In our efforts to support your workplace safety efforts, NYCM will continue to deliver value added Loss Prevention services through our dedicated Safety Consultants, Safety Resources Website, Return to Work Best Practice Blog and now with the debut of our updated Trust E-News. Please visit the Member web Resources at www.workerscomp.com and Logon as a Member to access continually updated and relevant safety information, training and management tools selected to help your business remain profitable.

We encourage you to post your certificate prominently as other members have done to show your employees, visitors and business peers this achievement for 2009. We look forward to serving your safety needs and helping make this a trend in 2010!

Sincerely,

Mark G. Balduzzi
